

InterGlobix and DE-CIX Announce Strategic Partnership for Atlantic Convergence Event

New collaboration set to spotlight advancements and connectivity within the transatlantic digital infrastructure community

National Harbor, Md., May 16, 2024. InterGlobix LLC, a global consultancy, advisory, publishing, and media company focused on the convergence of data centers and connectivity, and DE-CIX, the world's leading Internet Exchange (IX) operator, proudly announce their strategic partnership for the upcoming Atlantic Convergence event. This event, dedicated to the evolution and innovation in the pan-Atlantic digital infrastructure sector, is set to take place in Lisbon, Portugal, from October 1–3, 2024.

Vinay Nagpal, CEO of InterGlobix and a recognized leader in the global data center and connectivity industry, emphasized the significance of this partnership: “Joining forces with DE-CIX for the Atlantic Convergence event underscores the critical role of transatlantic connectivity in the global digital ecosystem. Together, we aim to foster collaboration and drive innovation that will enhance the digital infrastructure linking the Americas and Europe.”

DE-CIX's involvement in the Atlantic Convergence event brings unparalleled expertise and a vast network that spans multiple continents. Ivo Ivanov, Chairman and CEO of DE-CIX, stated, “Our partnership with InterGlobix for this event aligns perfectly with DE-CIX's mission to enhance global interconnectivity. The Atlantic Convergence event will serve as a pivotal platform to address the challenges and opportunities in the transatlantic data exchange landscape.”

More than just a conference, Atlantic Convergence offers attendees the opportunity to explore the evolving ecosystem around the Atlantic Ocean, where digital transformation is reshaping global data flows and influencing the geostrategy of nations. As a unique forum for enterprises, institutions, and providers within the Atlantic digital infrastructure value chain, Atlantic Convergence serves as the nexus where Africa, Europe, North America, and South America can converge to craft a shared and interconnected future.

- Stay Ahead of the Curve: Delve into groundbreaking research, insights, and success stories from leading enterprises and renowned industry experts to explore emerging opportunities in the Atlantic region.
- Discover Untapped Potential: Uncover and capitalize on the untapped business opportunities within the pan-Atlantic digital ecosystem.
- Connect & Collaborate: Engage directly with key stakeholders across the digital infrastructure value chain to forge alliances and co-create solutions tailored to the evolving demands of enterprise digital needs.
